Nrs. Poshody claimed a letter had been sent by Mrs. Woodbury's students ask-ing Mrs. Eddy to "Hit the cortain" and offered in evidence several telegrams seri to Mrs. Eddy in reply to her letter. Poston, May 25.—Mr. Penbody made several ineffectual attempts to draw from the witnesses anything to show on what arounds Mr. Woodbury was excommunicated. The court ruled the questions out. Asked whether Mrs. Woodbury was re-in tated at the request of Mrs. Eddy in March, 1838, that Mrs. Woodbury be given another chance to prove herself to be corthy to be a member of the church Mrs. Woonbury was reinstated, the wit-ness said, by rescinding the vote by

Mr. Johnson was asked if he knew BUT TOCK TIME 10 DO IT whether Mrs. Eddy had over spoken of the plaintiff as a perput possessing a mental power which enabled her to cause ckness or death. The court decided that That Mrs. Eddy Likened to Mr. Peanody would have to put the questhan in some other form, and the latter then wanted to know what Mr. Johnson's understanding was of the term mental malpractitioner.
